

What makes you different?

This report describes how you prefer to: deal with and relate to people, process information, make decisions and organize your life. It gives you a good overview of your personality and behavior. You can use this information to assess how well your personality might fit a potential employer or type of job.

Your Jung personality type

The descriptions you chose about your behavior indicate that the Personality Type that most accurately describes you is: Extravert-iNtuitive-Thinker-Judger

- Extraverts are outgoing, energetic and action-oriented. They are enthusiastic and expressive
- iNtuitives pay more attention to information that is imaginative and original. iNtuitives focus on the future.
- Thinkers make decisions using logic and impersonal analysis. They think with their heads rather than their hearts.
- Judgers prefer a lifestyle that is decisive, planned and orderly. They like a life that is organized and controlled.

An ENTJ at-a-glance

You are a natural born leader. This motivation is so powerful that you may find it difficult not to take the lead. Your natural place is at the head of the crowd, marshalling everyone together and moving the group forward. You are rarely content to stand quietly in the background. You set high standards for yourself and others. You are continually creating a mental list of things you want to learn, accomplish and master.

You are keenly analytical. Being logical, dispassionate and objective is as natural to you as breathing air. Problems invigorate you - you enjoy resolving them using logic and objective critical thinking - strong points of your personality. Your decisive and positive action leaves others in the dust. You have little patience with uncertainty, inefficiency or confusion. You are not afraid to make tough-minded decisions and take hard actions.

Every Jung Personality type has one or two specific nicknames that concisely describe your Jung personality type, e.g. Inventor, Strategist, Protector and others..
